

How should I respond when I am under attack and overwhelmed?

ACTION PLAN

How should I respond when I am under attack and overwhelmed?

1. In your difficult situation, have you considered that God has other options available for Him that are not possible for you to do? How do you trust God more to believe that He has your back?

---

---

2. What possible aspect of your faith and dependence on God is being put to the test in this situation? How do you address these concerns so that you may grow in the knowledge of God's presence and power in your life?
